1987 YEARBOOK DEDICATION

"Embrace the past with remembrances,"
Is what the philosophers say.
That's why this teacher is special
To us in every way.

He makes each hour fun.
He makes it all worthwhile
With a friendly greeting, a cheery "Hello,"
Or just a simple smile.

The work is hard, the tests are long,
But we still learn a lot.
Though at the end of each term, we all crowd around
To see how many POINTS we've got!

He gets involved with the students
No matter what it is,
Whether it's a sport or student government
Or kids helping kids.

Because he's more than a teacher,
Because he's a friend who cares,
This is how we want to thank him
For always being there —

We, the editors of the 1987 Rayder Yearbook do hereby dedicate this publication to Mr. Kenneth Plude for teaching us all to "embrace the past with remembrance."

Nicolas Alan Hahn
1968-1984

IN MEMORY

Through these woods
The swift runner did glide,
He felt nature's response
To his every stride.

He chose these wooded paths
With God as His guide,
And left his keen spirit
To stand by our side.

PERFORMING ARTS-STATE CHAMPS!

WE'RE NO. 1! — "OKLAHOMA"

Charlevoix High School, home of a state feared Cross Country Team, a good band program, a fair basketball team and athletic fans who flock to see all of Charlevoix's encounters have now, from back in section "Z" heard a call. A call for recognition as one of Michigan's foremost leaders in high school theater, the Charlevoix High School Performing Arts Team. This team has, in the last four years, pulled out of their hat four straight state titles.

The 1987 Performing Arts Team traveled to Oakland Community College February 21 and 22, stole three ones for their presentation of "Oklahoma." Charlevoix was given, by a panel of three judges judging on acting, voice, stage mechanics, make-up and set design, a score of 277 capturing the C and D State Title.

Great job, State Champs!

The forty-five minute performance also took some individual awards:

Rusty Coolman as Will Parker — excellent acting award.

Valerie Barnes as Aunt Eller — excellent acting award.

Kristen McLelland as Ado Annie — superior acting award.

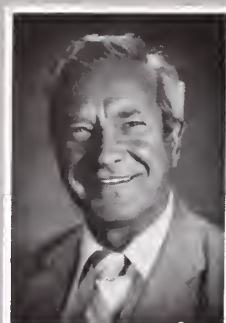

The 47 student-excellent ensemble acting award.

Ember Spencer, Barb McClanaghan and Lori Gleason — superior for choreography.

John Gray and Bob Sell — superior set design.

The 47 students — ensemble superior for movement and staging.

JUNIORS APPROACH THE LOOKING GLASS

Who are the Juniors? We will tell you. We are the class who placed second with our "Pac-Man Chomp to Victory" float and first with our skit lampooning President Reagan & Momar Khadaffi during Homecoming . . . We are members of the Varsity football and basketball teams who help give the seniors an extra surge of energy.

We are 1987's prom, recipients of term papers and Mr. Plude's points . . . We are next year's seniors and a new generation.

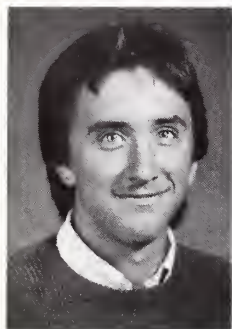

We are the JUNIORS! The class of '88!!

Sophomores In Wonderland

We, the Class of '89, have shown that we are a class with true Rayder spirit. After a meek attempt at the Homecoming skit, we came back to win first place with our "Captain Cave Caveman" float. We placed second in Spirit Week, much to our dismay. We felt extra excitement when we ordered our class rings, and we knew the agony of studying for biology tests, pop quizzes in geometry, and the industrious magazine sale.

Watch out for us next year when we once again show our power as the awesome Junior Class!

Freshmen Enter Wonderland

With high hopes and great expectations, the Freshmen boldly went where they had never been before . . . the hallowed halls of CHS. Their year consisted of stumbling through the halls, stumbling around at dances thus creating their own definition of "rhythm", and being tied for last place in the float competition. Nonetheless, they made it through their first year of high school and are anticipating becoming mighty sophomores! They've so much ahead and so little time in which to accomplish it!

ATHLETICS

FALL HOMECOMING '86

The week of Fall Homecoming was a week to remember. CHS students displayed their school spirit during the zany Spirit Week, followed by the building of the floats and the nominations for King and Queen.

Jayne Scharenbroch and Terry Bonar were voted to reign over the Homecoming activities. The 1985 Fall Homecoming King Sean Ferguson and Queen Chaya Moore presented their crowns during halftime at Kipke Field. Other court members included: Cindy Boss, Darrin Batdorff, Maria Parsons, Mike Thompson, Stephanie Martin, Quintin Walker, Jenniter Sell and Jim Gibbs.

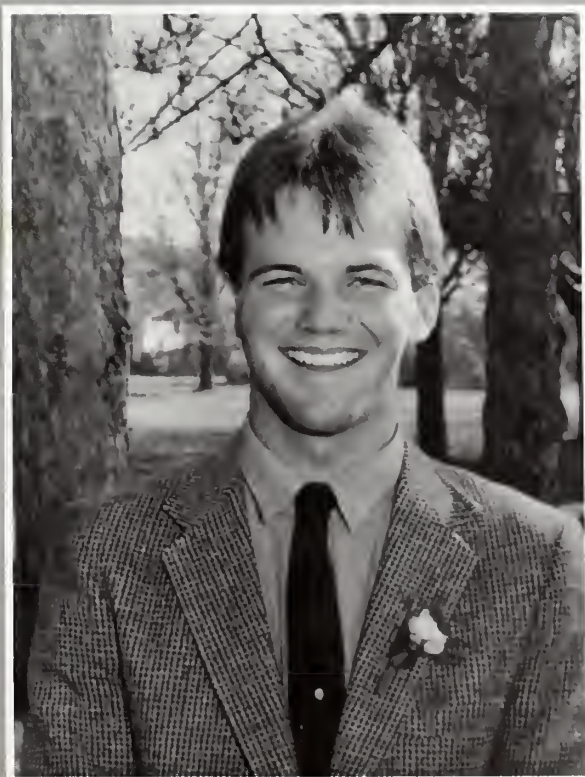

The traditional dance was held at the Charlevoix Middle School following our 8-0 victory over Grayling. The dance, with music provided by Marv Withhoefl as disc jockey, proved to be the perfect ending to a perfect evening.

A proud and happy moment!

We love you, King Terry!

The dubbing of the Tri-captains — Kent Seymour, Darrin Batdorff, Jim Gibbs.

Do you think that'll be us someday? Crown-bearers Annie Martin and Michael Ricks.

Charlevoix Flag Corps — Captain Michelle Louiselle, Kim Hand, Lori Rozema, Kristie Pearsall, Tina Fershee, Sandy Schaefer, Ember Spencer. Missing: Co-captain Jennifer Bonar and Coach Becky Resch.

THE QUEEN AND HER COURT . . .

. . . AND ALL THE KING'S MEN!

Seniors . . .

Ah yes, the mighty senior float, major proof of our awesome Rayder power! The theme was chosen from the popular cartoon, "He-Man and the Masters of the Universe". Despite our efforts in the bone-chilling cold from early evening until sometimes late at night, we were given LAST place. But we had good support as well as participation and all in all, we were proud of our class spirit! WAY TO GO, SENIORS!!!

THE MIGHTY SENIORS AT WORK??

FIRST PLACE WINNERS

Sophomores . . .

The sophomore float carried the theme of "Captain Caveman", and this was another bunch of kids who worked hard to make their project a success. Their efforts, support, and participation seemed to have paid off; they got first place. Great job, sophomores!

SECOND PLACE WINNERS

Juniors . . .

The junior float depicted Pac-Man and Ms. Pac-Man going after the "power pellets" to defeat the Grayling Vikings. They put a lot of hard work and unique sound effects into their creation and the judges must have been impressed, for the junior's Pac-Man chomped its way to second place. Not bad at all!

LAST BUT NOT LEAST . . .

Freshmen . . .

Last but not least was the Freshmen Class with their version of the Roadrunner and the Coyote. It was their first activity of the year, and it proved to be a real challenge. While it's true that "when the Rayders caught Grayling, they were through," it wasn't enough for they were tied for last place with the seniors. What do you think of this situation?

CROSS COUNTRY TEAMS

Our Cross Country Team had yet another winning season in 1986. This year's season was dedicated to the memory of Jeff Drenth, who gave coaching, friendship, and provided an example for all the members of the team.

The boys pushed their number of consecutive dual wins to 54. In the process they won the Petoskey, Claire Martin, and Shepherd Invitationals. Two of the "big three" meets, Conference and Regional, were won by the boys. Five members were All-Regional: Pat Rejewski, Kevin McLenon, Joe Simpson, Gehry Wiesner, and Scott Miller. At the State Meet in Cass City, they finished as Runner-up with Junior Pat Rajewski gaining All-State Honors. Two freshmen, Miller and Wiesner, made very important contributions and have promising futures with the team. Team Captain Doug Bergmann undefeated until injured late in the year, was able to return for the State Meet and added his talent to the end of a successful season.

The girls improved over last year. High placings in invitationals were a 2nd at Petoskey, 1st at Claire Martin, and 2nd at Sheperd. They won the Conference Title with Betsy, Michelle, and Heidi All-Conference. At the Regional Meet, they were fourth, eight points from qualifying for the State Meet. Co-captain Michelle North made All-Regional, and along with Junior Betsy Haggard qualified for the State individual run. Although Betsy was plagued by an injury, she ran strong at Regionals after leading the team all fall.

Our Junior Varsity Team showed much depth which hints at a promising future. Graduating seniors include Co-captains Doug Bergmann and Michelle North, Maria Parsons, Joe Simpson, Kevin McLenon and Harold Herriman.

A new tradition was started at CHS in 1985-86, a football game that only girls may play in. The game is played at the end of the regular boy's football season, and it is the senior girls against the underclassmen girls.

This year the game was a rough one. The girls really meant business when they were on the field. Believe it or not, the seniors were defeated with a score of 8-6.

The girls who didn't participate really missed an experience. The school spirit was high, and the girls did a GREAT job.

Winter Homecoming took place at Charlevoix High School on Friday night, February 13.

During the week, CHS students were involved in special activities preparing for Friday's big event. This year the hall decorations took the theme of "Childhood Fantasies," and even though most of them didn't stay up very long, they all looked very nice. The Seniors placed first with their whimsical version of "The Castle of Stars." The Juniors took first place with their awesome "Rayder Rap" skit and an overall first place in Spirit Week.

Amy McKinney and Doug Bergmann were crowned King and Queen during halftime. Their crowns were presented by the 1986 King and Queen, Tim Plagge and Stacey Way. Other court members included Lori Gleason, Karl Erber, Valerie Barnes, Jim Ciuk, Paul Anderson, Kim Swan, Jamey Spencley, and Jessica Moreno.

Following our 64-44 victory over Rogers City, the traditional Homecoming Dance took place at the Elementary School capping off an exciting evening.

Standing in the "reign" — Queen Amy McKinney and King Doug Bergmann.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We wish to thank the following people for their help and support in making the 1987 Rayder yearbook possible —

- Mrs. Doris Robinson for her patience and understanding. Without her, there would be no yearbook.
- Nikki Kurchinski, Joan Kenney, Monica Havens, Brenda Sutton, Brian Phillips, Carolyn Beer, and Lisa Abfalter for doing such a great job selling advertising.
- J. Lynn Warner, our photographer. Thanks, also, to Jennifer Bean and Leslie Hahn for helping out whenever possible.
- Tammy Southwood for providing the lovely poem for the completion page.
- Terry Bonar for providing the pictures for the senior index pages.
- Tammy Burnett, whose help was immeasurable.
- Don Smith for taking the homecoming pictures.
- The Charlevoix Courier, Petoskey News Review, and Fran Martin for providing us with sports pictures. Special thanks to Bob Clock for transportation.
- Terry Salmonson for taking the group pictures and being patient when things got out of control.
- All of the teachers for their patience when classes were disturbed for group pictures.
- All of the local businesses for buying advertising to defray the yearbook costs to the students.
- James Mansen for providing the picture for the completion page and for taking the group picture of the seniors.
- Everyone who wrote articles pertaining to sports events.
- Kendall Balch and Allison Clock who were always willing to lend a helping hand.
- A special thanks to Christa-Maria Hahn and Maxine Drenth for the pictures and the poem for the memorial page.
- Above all, all thanks to God for getting us through it!!

Thank you—

Trailing behind Momma, feathers ruffled,
The ugly duckling gazes at the vast body of water.
The world looks so big and scary
To the down-covered form huddled
Close to the sleek, graceful swan.
But in no time at all
The down and the short, awkward neck
Will be replaced by pretty white
Feathers and a long, sleek neck
Venturing into unknown waters
To start a life of its own.
And like the duckling
I anxiously await my feathers,
My grace . . . and the courage to
Explore the unknown water
That lies ahead of me.
